YORKER'S TRIAL IN BOY'S DEATH IS CONTINUED UNTIL MONDAY

The Adams County jury hearing the involuntary manslaughter and hit and run charges against Alvin J. Flory, 62, York sheet metal worker, will not reach its decision in the case before Monday.

All of the testimony in the case had been given and the district attorney and Attorney M. Swope for Flory had presented their arguments to the jury by the close of court Friday evening.

Judge W. C. Sheely then asked the jury to return Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock, cautioning the members not to make a decision in the case until they hear the charge from the court Monday and then begin their deliberations.

DEFENDANT TESTIFIES

Flory was on the witness stand during much of Friday afternoon. His testimony was that he drove home from work at Chambersburg on the afternoon of December 22 with two fellow workmen. At Old Mill Inn in New Oxford they stopped for several drinks. He then left the other two off in the square at New Oxford and continued toward his home at York. In Abbotstown he heard a thump and thought his car had developed a flat tire. He braked and, when the car stopped, got out of the auto, walked around it and examined the tires. Finding no flat, he got back into the car and started to drive on. Deciding to light a cigar, he stopped the car before returning to the traveled portion of the highway and then drove on again.

That night he went with his wife to a square dance establishment. Leaving the dance hall early on the morning of December 23, he noticed a dent in the fender of his car and believed his vehicle had been struck by a car in the parking lot. That afternoon while at a physician's office he heard a radio

Highland Twp. To Regulate Junk

The supervisors of Highland Twp. give notice in a legal advertisement in today's edition of The Gettysburg Times of their intention to adopt at a meeting on March an ordinance regulating the storing and accumulation of junk in the township and providing for the issuance of licenses to junk dealers and the operation of junk yards in the township.

The proposed ordinance, which is intended to go into effect March 10, provides for a $100 fee for applications for operation of junk yards and there would be an annual renewal fee of $50. At Least 17 Lose Lives As Worst Storm In Years Clobbers Northern Europe

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—Howling winter winds, raging seas and floods clobbered northern Europe in one of its worst storms of the century today.

In Britain at least 11 persons perished and in Germany six were known dead with others feared drowned as the North sea smashed through coastal dikes.

Thousands fled their homes in the port cities of Hamburg and Bremerhaven in Germany and thousands more were reported fleeing from the lowlands. Many were believed caught asleep in their beds by gushing flood waters.

High winds pounded the Baltic Coast of Communist East Germany, causing considerable damage, the official news agency ADN reported.

A spokesman for the Hamburg city government said between 20,000 and 40,000 persons were homeless.

THOUSANDS HOMELESS

Two villages on the upper Elbe River near the East German border were cut off when two dikes burst. West German army helicopters flew to evacuate the villagers.

BLAZE CAUSES $35,000 LOSS FRIDAY NIGHT

Fire from an undetermined origin caused an estimated $35,000 damage to a barn midway between Aspers and Centre Mills shortly after 10 o'clock Friday evening. The building was owned by Isaac Ripley, Aspers R. 1.

More than 8,000 apple crates and several pieces of farm equipment, which was stored in the building, were destroyed, as was the wooden, tin-roofed structure.

Charles Gulden, Aspers fire chief, said that by the time the firemen arrived on the scene at 10:20 o'clock the building was "so far gone" that the only thing they could do was to protect the sheds and other buildings in the nearby area. He said, "It was well up in flames and I could see clear through the side of the barn and a little later the tin roof fell in."

CALL 3 COMPANIES

Gulden said the equipment destroyed included: Two wagons, speed sprayer, side rake, new 12-hole drill, a couple hundred bushels of corn, spraying materials, several stepladders and a 1951 Buick owned by the tenant.

The Bendersville and Biglerville Fire Companies were also called but were used only for protection to the other buildings. Gulden said that the only water used was from booster tanks.

He placed damage to the barn at $15,000 and to the contents about $20,000. Gulden said he was at a loss to say how the fire started and noted that there was no electricity in the building. The barn was used primarily for storage.

Biglerville firemen were called to a chimney fire at the Frank Culp residence at the Shriver Crossroads' intersection about 5:15 o'clock Friday afternoon. Damage was estimated at $900. Chief Sterling Roth said the fire apparently started from the electric cook stove in the kitchen and swept up the chimney.

Trooper N. F. Bechtol of the Maryland State Police said that Cornett was found sitting beside his car near his home on the Mud College Road between Thurmont and Emmitsburg by a passerby. He said that the car apparently had become stuck and, after trying to free the vehicle, he sat down to rest and died after he fell asleep.

Adams County will soon have a radiological monitoring station to measure and report on the levels of radiation for Civil Defense purposes.

Soil conservation technicians from the Gettysburg office will attend a training session in Harrisburg in March conducted by specialists from the Soil Conservation Service and the state Council of Civil Defense.

This will involve a determination of radiation and the degree of contamination of crops, water and soils. They will also provide suggested remedial measures to be taken following an emergency in rural areas of the county. This information will be furnished to the U.S. Department of Agriculture County Defense boards and through it to the individual farmers.

Open Contest To Stimulate "Campaign Gettysburg"

Students in art classes in the public schools have started a poster contest as a part of the civic project "Campaign Gettysburg," sponsored jointly by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and The Saturday Evening Post.

The contest includes students from the Eighth Grade through the Senior High School. Nominal cash prizes will be given to the winners. Four sections have been set up for the contest as follows: Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Grade pupils and the pupils of 11th Grade and some Senior High School students.

CAMPAIGN THEME

The posters are to be created on "Campaign Gettysburg," the theme of which is "To Create Our Historic Image." Art teachers who launched their students on the poster task this week have explained that they can have wide latitude in presenting their conception of what Gettysburg has meant to them in its historic significance.

All phases of the battle, as well as important incidental occurrences during the battle, the John Burns story, the people of the town ministering to the wounded, and other sentimental interludes may be used as the basis for the artistic creations.

"Many of the pupils who have grown up in the historic environment here no doubt have definite ideas that present to them something of the meaning of the Battle of Gettysburg and its incidental history, and create an image that they have held through their lives," a spokesman for the Jaycees said in announcing the poster event.

"We want them to portray those ideas in a contest that leaves them wide freedom in the creation of their concepts. Gettysburg's historic image has long been obvious in its larger sense, but we hope that 'Campaign Gettysburg' generally and this poster contest in particular will do much to create or restore that image in a vivid sense."

Judges will be named later. The contest closes March 20 when the posters will be exhibited for a week or 10 days in store windows of those merchants in the downtown business sections who are cooperating in the "Campaign Gettysburg" project. After the judging the winners, along with a few of the other outstanding posters, will be displayed in one or two prominent locations for public inspection, to be chosen later.

Tour Of Duty Of Yankees In South Viet Nam Will Be Extended Eighteen Months

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials say the guerrilla war in South Viet Nam will be won with a minimum amount of combat and loss of life by Americans.

As this official optimism was being expressed here, there was a report in Saigon the United States is going to triple the length of service of some of its Army men in Viet Nam.

About three-fourths of the estimated 4,000 U. S. servicemen there are assigned to a temporary six-month tour of duty, but an informant said this was being extended to a permanent 18-month tour for some key personnel, such as helicopter pilots.

BATTLE REDS

The Saigon dispatch said official information on the extension was classified, presumably to avoid calling more attention to the U. S. military buildup. It is aimed at keeping the Southeast Asian country from falling to Communist guerrillas and infiltration.

Young Republicans Will Meet Monday

The Adams County Young Republican Club will meet in the lower court room at the courthouse Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The Misses Nancy Ellidge and Aurelia Spence and Mrs. Jean Rohrbaugh will be in charge of the program.

Those persons who have not made a final report on their Lincoln Day ticket sales are asked to do so at the meeting. Mrs. Oscar Spicer, membership chairman, has emphasized that all interested persons in Adams County between the ages of 18 and 36 are invited to join the club at any of its regular meetings, which are held on the third Tuesday of each month. Light refreshments are served at the close of each meeting.

COURT OKAYS COURTHOUSE CONTRACTS

The Adams County court Friday afternoon gave its approval to contracts for alterations to the courthouse and as a result work should begin probably next week with the contractors scheduled to finish by the end of 90 days.

The contracts are for general construction by the Gettysburg Construction Co. for $9,000; plumbing by J. R. Weaver, Gettysburg, for $1,294, and electrical work by Hull Electric, Gettysburg R. D., for $1,182.

All of the contracts as approved by the court provide for bond by the contractors and provides that if the work is not completed within 90 days Gettysburg Construction must pay $25 a day and the other contractors $10 a day each for each day required after the 90 days expires.

OFFICES TO MOVE

The contracts also require that the contractors will remedy, without cost to the county, any defect that may develop within one year after the work is completed and accepted by the commissioners.

The work planned includes enlargement of the register and recorder's office and a change in the basement toilets of the courthouse. The register and recorder's office will expand to include the present office used by the chief assessor. The vault of the register and recorder's office will be expanded to include what is now the child welfare offices. The child welfare services will move to the Topper Building next door to the courthouse, purchased by the county last year. The chief assessor's office will move into the offices presently used by the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association. No decision has been announced yet concerning the future location of the agricultural extension office.

In other action Friday afternoon, the court placed on parole for one year Ronald Wachter, York, who had been sentenced to nine to 18 months in jail last May on a burglary and larceny charge. The court was told costs in the case had been paid and restitution made.

SHOEMAKER TO HEAD NEW UNIT FOR SCOUTERS

William G. Shoemaker II, Gettysburg R. 6, pharmacist at the Peoples Drug Store, was named chairman of the "Get Together" program of the Black Walnut Boy Scout District at a meeting of district officials Friday night at WGET.

District Chairman Charles E. Ritter, Littlestown, made the appointment, and then Shoemaker presided at a meeting of district committee heads at which plans were made for an intensive campaign by which it is hoped 20 new Boy Scout units can be formed in the district within the coming year.

A team of 25 "organizers" will be formed to visit every organization large and small and all small communities in the district to seek five men from each community or organization to attend a meeting March 30 at which the scouting program will be outlined. Training sessions for the organizers will be held March 2 and March 16. The organizers will have the duty of securing the men to attend the March 30 meeting, then of working with them until new units have been registered.

Organization of the units will be the responsibility of the organization and extension committee headed by George Keady, while the training will be under direction of the training committee headed by Joseph Sanbury. The commissioners' staff headed by Crosby N. Hartzell will have the responsibility along with the other committees of finding organizers as well as providing and training commissioners to serve the new units. All of the district committees will be involved in recruiting organizers and carrying out other phases of the campaign, it was decided.

New pastors of Gettysburg will be presented with copies of the history of the Gettysburg Bible Society, published in 1957, it was decided at the annual meeting of the 115-year-old society Friday afternoon at the home of its president, Mrs. H. E. Berkey, 138 W. Broadway. Mrs. Berkey has been president of the local society for 37 years.

"It is hoped that others might use this means to honor their living or memorialize their departed loved ones," Mrs. Berkey said.

Mrs. Berkey noted that the local unit's gifts to the American Bible Society helped make it possible for that organization to distribute 23,210,485 volumes of scripture last year, which is at the rate of 2,600 per hour.

Devotions for Friday's meeting were led by Mrs. Louise Hoffman. Prayer was offered by the executive members. Copies of the local unit's history are available from the president; the vice president, Mrs. Milton R. Remmel; the secretary, Mrs. Hoffman, or the treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Culp.

FAMILY OF 5 SLAIN; HUBBY ENDS OWN LIFE

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—An Army doctor's wife and their four young sons were found shot to death Friday in their home here. Several hours later the doctor's body—a bullet wound in his head—was found in a Washington, D. C., hotel room.

Police said the wife and children apparently had been dead since Wednesday, Valentine's Day. The doctor, Capt. Vincent J. Madison, 33, lay across a daybed, a 22-caliber pistol in his hand. Police said it was the same caliber weapon used to slay Mrs. Madison and the children. The victims were Sally Carter Madison, 33, and her sons, Vincent Jr., 8; Mark, 7; Brian, 5, and Hugh, 2. Their bodies were on beds, fully clothed. They were found by sheriff's deputies who were asked to investigate when Madison failed to report for duty Friday at the hospital at Ft. Jackson.

"HARD TO KNOW"
The doctor was described as quiet and personable, and by a neighbor as hard to know. Chief Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Harrison said notes found in the Madison home indicated Madison shot his wife and sons. The content of the notes was not made public, although police said one read: "I will not be far away." No notes were found in the hotel room where Madison's body was discovered. He had checked into the hotel at 7:30 a.m. Thursday and had not been seen since. "They seemed like very fine people—a well-knit family," said a neighbor, Mrs. James T. Kolb. Madison and his wife were natives of Syracuse, N. Y., and both were graduated from Syracuse University. They were married in 1953.

NEW REQUEST FOR DAMAGES

Further progress on the construction of the new U. S. Route 15, the Gettysburg bypass, is indicated in a letter signed by James C. Whalen, district engineer of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, to the Adams County Commissioners dated February 15.

The letter advised the commissioners that changes in width, lines and location on State Route 1036-Section 4 will result in property damages estimated at $134,315 and the county officials are asked to notify the department if they wish to make a contribution.

The letter pertains to the property damage of the proposed section, 3.50 miles north of U. S. 30 and is located in Straban Twp. On similar requests on other sections of the bypass, the commissioners have declined to participate in the payment of damage because a considerable part of the bypass cost is being born by federal funds. This new request is expected to come before them at their next meeting next Wednesday.

Card Party Every Saturday Night
Annual Carnival July 9 through 14

10 CARDINALS ARE SELECTED; NONE FROM U.S.

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII named 10 new cardinals today raising the College of Cardinals to 87—the highest in Roman Catholic Church history.

There were no North Americans among the new princes of the church.

The Pope called a Consistory for March 19 to present the new cardinals their red hats.

The new cardinals included three Italians, two South Americans, one Irishman, one Spaniard, one Portuguese and one Belgian and one Syrian.

The new cardinals are: Juan Landazuri Ricketts, archbishop of Lima, Peru; Raul Silva Henríquez, archbishop of Santiago, Chile; Leo Jozef Suensens, archbishop of Malines-Brussels; Father Michael Browne, Irish, superior of the Dominican Order; Msgr. Jose da Costa Nunes, Portuguese, vice chamberlain of the Roman Catholic Church.

OTHERS NAMED

Msgr. Giovanni Panico, Italian, Vatican nuncio to Portugal; Msgr. Ildebrando Antonutti, Italian, Vatican nuncio to Spain; Msgr. Efrém Forni, Italian, Vatican nuncio to Belgium; Msgr. Gabriэле Acacio Coussa, pro secretary of the Vatican Oriental congregation; Abbot Anselmo Albareda, Spaniard, prefect of the Vatican library and a member of the Benedictine Order.

The Consistory will be the fifth that Pope John has held for creation of cardinals since he became pontiff on Oct. 28, 1958.

He named his first cardinals only a few days after his election, creating 23 of them on Dec. 15, 1958, to bolster the college for its increasing work in administering the church.

HUGE MEMBERSHIP

That Consistory brought the college's membership to 74, breaking for the first time the limit of 70 set by Pope Sixtus V in 1586. At that time the total population of the world was about 360-million people. Today, membership of the Roman Catholic Church alone nears the half-billion mark.

Pope John also has created three cardinals "in pectore"—in his breast—holding their names secret. These, when their names are announced, will be considered to have been cardinals from March 28, 1960, the date that the Pope announced that he had their names.

IN RED AREAS

They are generally believed to be prelates of the church in Communist-dominated areas of the world who would be imperiled if their cardinal status were made known.

During his reign 17 cardinals have died.

Following the recent deaths of three cardinals that cut the college to 77 men, many of whom are in advanced years, Pope John again moved quickly to bolster its ranks. The average age of the present cardinals is 71 years.

It was generally believed that Pope John wished to strengthen the college in view of the forthcoming Ecumenical Council of the Roman Catholic Church.

The Consistory call was expected following the death Thursday of Aloisius Cardinal Muench, the only American cardinal on the Vatican Curia and the third cardinal to die in 10 days.

$100,000 FIRE DAMAGES STORE

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa. (AP)—Fire wrecked the interior of the Capo Furniture Store in the downtown section of this Beaver County community late Friday night, causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

The blaze was discovered at about 9:05 p.m., shortly after the owners had locked up for the night.

Nine fire companies battled the blaze for three hours before bringing it under control.

Two firemen were injured.

Theodore Kuel was shaken up when he fell halfway through the store's ground floor. W. S. McDanel, who also is manager of New Brighton Borough, suffered a cut hand and was treated at the scene.

Anthony Capo, the store owner, said the loss would be about $100,000, including damage to a new shipment of furniture.

mates placed damage at more than $250 million.

Dikes gave way first in the port city of Bremerhaven. Hundreds of men, including American soldiers, worked through the night to close the breaks with sandbags.

SWEEP OVER DIKES

Air raid sirens were sounded in Cuxhaven on the Elbe River estuary when the high water swept over the dikes and flooded thousands of basements.

Farms in the fertile lowlands between Bremen and Cuxhaven and south of Husum were among the first to be evacuated.

In the Emsland, near the Dutch border, a dike was reported to have breached on a length of almost 900 yards.

Soon, there were more reports of breaches multiplied and a special disaster alert was sounded for police, fire brigades and the army along the whole of the North Sea coast.

HUDDLE ON ROOFS

In a driving rain, thousands of people waited on roofs or in the top floors of their houses to be evacuated by rubber rafts. In some regions, rescuers reported a shortage of boats.

The refugees, some only in their nightclothes, were taken to temporary shelters in schools, townhalls or hospitals in high-lying areas.

Hamburg, a city of two million, appeared worst hit by the floods, which in some parts brought the high tide level to 12 feet above normal.

Residential and industrial areas along the Elbe River section of the city were submerged. In downtown Hamburg, the waters reached the city hall. The floods also entered the Elbe River Tunnel, a vital link for motor traffic.

Evacuated persons, carrying belongings in suitcases, were seen rushing through the streets as the waters advanced. The scenes recalled the nights following the air raids on the city during World War II.

HURLER CAN'T LEAVE CUBA

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Houston Colts, one of two new National League entries for the 1962 baseball campaign, checked in at their Apache Junction training camp in Arizona and immediately ran into their first problem — missing pitcher Pete Montejo.

Montejo, who came to the Colts along with pitcher Bob Bruce in a trade that sent hurlers Sam Jones to the Detroit Tigers, lives in Cuba and told Houston officials he has been having difficulty arranging transportation from Havana.

FEW CONTRACTS

The 21-year-old right-hander was unable to say when he might make it to the Colts' advance camp, which opened Friday with 21 pitchers and six catchers on hand.

Signing activity was at a minimum with Cincinnati signing pitcher Bob Purkey, the New York Mets picking up relief specialist Clem Labine, a free agent since he was dropped by the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Philadelphia inking hurler Art Mahaffey.

The Cleveland Indians completed signing their 40-man roster by reaching agreement with pitchers Jim Perry, Gary Bell, Bob

More Reports By Townships

According to the report, 477 paid real estate tax and 862 per capita tax. The collection was made at a cost of $2,440.83 of which $2,273.40 represented the tax collector's commissions.

The taxes collected included $7,557.89 for the township, $46,243.19 for the school district, $5,419.58 for the county and $2,439.13 for the county institution district.

RAIN ERASES 3 UNDER PAR

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Jimmy Demaret has mixed feelings about starting over today in the second round of the $25,000 PGA Seniors Golf Championship.

He was 3 under par after 11 holes Friday when rain washed out the day's play.

"I hate to lose the birdies, but I'm glad to get another chance to play number seven," said Demaret.

On the 533-yard seventh hole, one of the par 5's where the better pros look for birdies, Demaret took a miserable six. But he birdied three of the next four holes and had two of the easier birdie chances ahead of him.

In his first round 67 on Wednesday, Demaret birdied both of those.

Other contenders lost sub-par rounds because of the rain. John Barnum of Belmont, Mich., who tied Demaret at 67 in the first round was 2 under par for 1x holes on his second tour of the 6,636-yard PGA National Club course.

After today's second round for the 50-54 age group, the best 125 go on through Sunday and Monday to complete 72 holes.

FOURTEEN CARS ARE DERAILED

BALTIMORE (AP) — Fourteen cars of a 135-car Pennsylvania Railroad freight train derailed shortly before dawn today, blocking all four of the carrier's main lines.

A railroad spokesman said the accident in Bay View yards, seven miles north of the Baltimore station, caused no injuries.

Harold Matlock of the carrier's public relations department, said passenger trains operating later in the morning may be derailed. This will depend on the outcome of clearing operations, he added.

Matlock said the derailment caused no damage to power lines. The cause of the accident was not known, he added.

Four tracks involved service through-passenger trains from Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Washington and points south—in both directions.

Matlock said the freight was from Wilmington, bound for Washington.

Two Men Killed In Three-Car Mishap

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Two men were killed Friday when their car rammed the back of a truck, blew a tire and skidded head-on into another truck.

The victims were Hunter Earl Greer, 37, of R. 2, Mountain City, Tenn., identified as the driver, and Vernon Barlow, 33, a passenger. It was snowing when the accident occurred, on Route 30 near Gap, 13 miles east of here.

One of the truck drivers was injured.

Neglectful Mother Put On Probation

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A mother whose three children were found by police huddling in the rain last Jan. 6 has been given a one and a half year to three year suspended prison term on child abandonment charges.

Judge Victor H. Blanc also placed the woman, Mrs. Helen Adams, 32, on two years' probation.

During Friday's hearing, Lorenzo Martino, 65, testified he was the father of the children and that he left Mrs. Adams because she drank and would not care for the children.

The children, Mercedes, 3; Wanda, 2; and Henry, 6 months, are now in the care of friends.

Mrs. Adams testified she received $71.30 in welfare assistance every other week and once a month received surplus food. She denied the child abandonment charge, and that she drank.

YORKER'S TRIAL

report of a child struck by a car at Abbotsdown at about the time he was passing through. He then drove to Abbotsdown to find out if that had been the noise he had heard the night before.

DIDN'T SEE BOY

At Abbotsdown he went to a justice of the peace's office to try to locate the police chief. The justice told him his car did not answer the description given by police of the car involved in the accident. Later that day, he talked to Abbotsdown and state police, said he told them he had come directly from Chambersburg and omitted details of stopping at the Old Mill Inn. He said he did not believe he was the one who had hit the child because the description did not fit his car. At the same time, he said, he was fearful that if the police knew he had been drinking "they would pin it on me right away."

He told the jury: "I've asked myself a million times whether I hit that boy — but I still haven't come up with an answer. I never see that boy."

DENIES STATEMENT

Flory denied a statement signed by him before police January 11 in which he was quoted as saying he "dozed off" in Abbotsdown.

The charge grows from an accident in which a 12-year-old Abbotsdown boy, Eugene Crigger, was fatally hurt when struck by a car as he was pushing a bicycle along the street in the western edge of Abbotsdown.

British Troops Sent To Guiana To Put Down Riots

By CARL BLACKMAN

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP) — British warships landed battle-tried troops in this scarred and scorched colonial capital today to help put down rioting against Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan's leftist regime.

British troops went ashore after four days of strikes and demonstrations had erupted into bloody street fighting. The demonstrators, civil servants, teachers, clerks and others, demand the resignation of Jagan.

The bloodshed seemed certain to set back Jagan's drive for quick independence for British Guiana, Britain's only South American colony, and his hopes for U.S. Alliance for Progress funds.

PLEADS FOR ORDER

The British governor, Sir Walter Grey, broadcast repeated appeals for order and declared the violence had deferred all plans for British Guiana for years. Presumably he meant independence.

The strikers have protested that if Jagan gets his demand for swift independence he will turn British Guiana into another Cuba.

The uprising was touched off by Jagan's austerity program and its unpopular compulsory savings

Reach Agreement On Alliance Fund

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Government sources reported today the United States and the Dominican Republic have reached agreement on $25 million worth of Alliance for Progress credits to help ease this nation's economic burden.

The reported agreement came after nearly a month of negotiations on the terms of the credits. Original conditions set down by the United States were called harsh and unacceptable in some government quarters and openly denounced in left-wing circles.

The conditions of the agreement reported by the government sources could not be learned. But it was understood they were more lenient than the previous ones.

LEARN QUICKLY

Also, they feel the South Vietnamese troops are quickly learning the antiguerrilla techniques so they can battle the Viet Cong Communist rebels themselves without direct action by Americans.

Press dispatches from Saigon have reported that U. S. forces supporting and advising Viet Nam's military establishment are increasingly trading pot shots with the Communist Viet Cong.

President Kennedy has said the Americans—described as assigned to technical and training jobs only—are under orders to shoot back if fired upon.

But the officials said they don't expect U. S. troops to get involved very often in this kind of clash.

Thus, the officials said, the only American casualties foreseen would be few in number, such as in airplane crashes. Eight Americans were killed Sunday in the crash of a plane dropping propaganda leaflets.

LEARN QUICKLY

Also, they feel the South Vietnamese troops are quickly learning the antiguerrilla techniques so they can battle the Viet Cong Communist rebels themselves without direct action by Americans.

Press dispatches from Saigon have reported that U. S. forces supporting and advising Viet Nam's military establishment are increasingly trading pot shots with the Communist Viet Cong.

President Kennedy has said the Americans—described as assigned to technical and training jobs only—are under orders to shoot back if fired upon.

But the officials said they don't expect U. S. troops to get involved very often in this kind of clash.

Thus, the officials said, the only American casualties foreseen would be few in number, such as in airplane crashes. Eight Americans were killed Sunday in the crash of a plane dropping propaganda leaflets.

THE NEW COMMANDMENT
Each week John Goodly goes to church, a most religious man is he.
His conduct is above reproach, he gives to every charity;
He treads the straight and narrow path, temptation finds him stern and cold.
He has no patience with the lamb who sometimes wanders from the fold.
And so Bill Green who worked for him now sits with leaden cheeks and pale—
He stole to feed his little ones—and Goodly had him sent to jail.
Bill Green's a thief, and laws are made to punish thieves, and none can say
That Goodly did not have the right to send dishonest Bill away;
And yet, John Goodly, rich and proud, knew all the facts concerning Bill.
He'd seen that scarlet fever sign—he knew his little ones were ill;
He knew the ache within his heart, he knew his bitterness was real.
But still to him he coldly read the written law:
"Thou shalt not steal!"
"Am I my brother's keeper?" will not answer for John Goodly then,
For none can live his life alone; he shares it with his fellow men.
"Thou shalt not steal!" that law shall stand; but still another shall be writ
And all the Goodlies of the earth shall some day suffer under it.
The new commandment has been made—its signs on every hand reveal
The widening bonds of brotherhood—"Thou shalt not tempt a man to steal."

Her ailment was diagnosed by hospital physicians as gastro-enteritis, an inflammation of the lining of the stomach and intestines. Her condition on Friday was listed as fair.
DRAIN CANNED PEACHES and put a spoonful of maple syrup in each cavity. Heat in the oven and serve with vanilla ice cream.

Today's Talk

ARE YOU MISUNDERSTOOD?
Most of us waste a great deal of time being "misunderstood." Why shouldn't we be misunderstood? I have never yet met a human being who understood himself or herself. Why should we expect others to understand us.
Worry as little as possible about being misunderstood by others. Give great thought to understanding yourself. The best driver of a car is that one who knows most about the car itself. If it doesn't respond to manipulation accurately, he knows what to do.
No man is powerful or influential who doesn't understand himself well enough to direct his energies aright during moments of distress or emergency.
Pope once said that the "proper study of mankind is man." Of course what he meant was that every single man was to study himself and try his best to solve himself into service and usefulness.

SEEK TO STOP GIVING BIBLES TO 7 SCHOOLS

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP)—The Bucks County Court has continued until next Wednesday a hearing on a petition for a preliminary injunction to ban the distribution of 3,000 New Testaments to pupils in schools of the Centennial Joint System in Lower Bucks County.
The court strongly urged opposing sides to use the interval to try to reach some amicable agreement.
Heard during an all-day session Thursday were two members of the Society of Friends who had brought the action: an Episcopal clergyman; a Biblical teacher at Temple University; a teacher at LaSalle College and a Levittown rabbi.

COURT RULING
A special federal court recently ruled unconstitutional a Pennsylvania law requiring the reading of the Bible in public schools even though the law stipulates that pupils may be excused upon written requests from their parents.
Enforcement of the ruling, however, has been stayed pending an appeal. Centennial school officials had said the New Testaments would be distributed on a voluntary basis—only if pupils requested them.
The court was told Thursday that free distribution of the Bibles, donated by the Gideon Society, would inject a religious issue into the Centennial system.

CITES PRESSURE
Samuel M. Shipes, a lawyer representing Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Polster, who sought the injunction, said distribution of the Bibles would result in pressure on Catholic and Jewish children from their fellow students, "who are primarily Protestant." The Polsters have four children in schools in the district.
Snipes said Catholic and Jewish Bibles differ from the Gideon Society's Bible.
The Gideon Society had given 3,000 Bibles for distribution in the district's seven schools. After the controversy arose over the distribution the society asked for the return of the Bibles.

TO KEEP BIBLES
The school board, however, decided to keep the Bibles.
At the hearing Judge Edward H. Biester asked the school board's attorney, Richardson Blair, if the society had demanded the return of the Bibles.
"I did not construe it as a demand," Blair said.
Polster, a Southampton research chemist, said: "I am not opposed to my children reading Gideon Bibles or having them given to them in the home but not in a public school."
The Rev. James A. Trimble, of the Southampton Episcopal Church, said: "The Bible is our book. He testified that after he heard about the proposal he called a meeting of Protestant ministers in the area and they decided to 'take the school board off the hook' by offering to distribute the Bibles through the churches."

Professor Found After Being Lost 7 Years, Not Going Back

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—Exit—Dr. Carl Vernon Holmberg, associate professor in forest chemistry at Syracuse University, married and father of three children, Enter—Verne Hansen, $1.90 an hour factory worker living alone in a second-class hotel.
That transformation was the decision today of a 45-year-old man who has been identified as a college professor who dropped out of sight nearly seven years ago.
Hansen was unmasked as Holmberg Wednesday by a routine check of fingerprints after he was arrested for a traffic violation.
WAS DIVORCED
A review of events since he disappeared from Syracuse University, May 11, 1955, showed:
The professor's wife, Dorothy, divorced him two years ago believing he was dead or never would return. She moved to California with their three sons—Carl, now 18; Lee, 11, and Richard, 9. Last year, she married Gordon Babcock, a consulting electronics engineer. The family lives in Menlo Park, Calif.
The professor said the last thing he remembers about his present life is a car lift a motorist gave him from Elgin, Ill., to Rockford some time in 1953.
He took a job as a pigment grinder in a paint factory and, records show, in November 1959 married Mabel Ostling, 42. They are separated.
The professor made it clear at a news conference Thursday that he doesn't want to return now to his old station in life.
NO INTERESTS
"For the time being, it is almost imperative that I remain what I am," he said. "There seems no necessity of digging back to uncover a life I know nothing about."
In California, the former Mrs. Holmberg said: "I have no further interest in Dr. Holmberg. We have no connection with him, either legally or emotionally, any more."
Hansen didn't question that he and Holmberg are the same persons.
"I was very astonished at discovering the results of the fingerprint checks," he said. "It still seems incredible, but it also seems that the authorities have the facts and I must assume they are correct."

Halfback Ernie Davis of Syracuse handled the ball four times from scrimmage against Colgate this fall and scored twice. He also passed to one touchdown.

Bermudian Out Of Class C Playoffs

Bermudian Springs, top team in the Adams Division of the Adams-Franklin League, and slated to be Scotland's first-round opponent in the Class C district playoffs, has been withdrawn from the post-season cage play.

C. W. Eisenhart, a member of the district playoff committee, said last night that a check of records revealed Bermudian Springs had elected to compete as a Class B school this year and thus is ineligible for Class C playoffs.

Scotland automatically gains a first-round bye.

An old nemesis was overcome by the Gettysburg Junior High School cagers here Friday evening when the Braves upset Hanover 35-26 in a South Penn League game. It was the first victory over a Hanover team in a number of years.

Carl Schoenborn's varsity, playing one of its best games, took a 6-2 lead in the first period and were on top the remainder of the way.

The Braves, in avenging a previous setback, connected on 13 of their 33 shots from the floor. Dick Finkbner sparked the winners with 14 tallies and Jack Snedden rimmed 12 for the Falcons.

The victory gives the Braves a 5-5 record. They meet unbeaten Central at Chambersburg next Tuesday and then finish their campaign against the same team here February 27.

A goal by Kit Richardson in the last three seconds of play broke a 23-23 deadlock and enabled Don Bickel's jayvees to win the opener 25-23 to also avenge a loss at Hanover.

The victory gives the reserves a lofty 8-2 mark.

STENGEL SAYS METS SIGNED GOOD PLAYERS

(16th in a series of major league baseball team appraisals, written under the managers' bylines)

NEW YORK METS
By CASEY STENGEL
NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — It will be very hard for me to give a discussion about the New York Mets ballplayers that have been lined up for 1962. I would not want to question the ability of the said players until I have seen them in spring training.

But I can tell you this. We made some pretty good picks in the expansion draft. That was a good start and now we have 35 players on the roster.

Our team can use players on the infield outfield and pitching staff.

SOME EXPERIENCE
We have some experienced pitchers and quite a few young ones. Bob Miller, Aubrey Gatewood and Norm Anderson are all under 25 years of age. Billy Loes, Roger Craig and Jay Hook are experienced. Al Jackson, who we got from Pittsburgh, can throw hard.

I think this club will be a tough one in the Polo Grounds. We've got some long ball hitters and the fences are pretty short. Frank Thomas and Charley Neal should be real home threats and the same goes for Gil Hodges.

We have an experienced outfield with Thomas in left, Gus Bell in right and Richie Ashburn in center. I expect good work from our other outfielders, Joe Christopher, Jimmy Hickman and John Demerit.

PROBABLE LINEUP
Anything can happen in spring training, but right now I'm figuring Hodges on first, Felix Mantilla on short, Neal for second and Don Zimmer for third.

Hobie Landrith gives us an experienced catcher and Joe Ginsberg is another one who has been around a long time.

I feel the Dodgers, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and St. Louis have the best teams in the National League. All I want to say about the Mets right now is I don't think they'll be any pushovers.

BARONS CLOSE IN ON BISONS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
On-rushing Cleveland has a major opportunity to close up on western leader Buffalo tonight when it takes on slumping Providence in an American Hockey League game.

The Barons, who have won three straight and 17 of their last 21, play host to the Reds, who haven't won in six starts. A Cleveland victory would move it to within one point of western leader Buffalo, idle tonight.

The Reds, troubled with injuries, lost their sixth straight in the only league activity Friday night, a 5-2 decision to Rochester. The triumph pulled Rochester to within six points of Cleveland.

CAME FROM BEHIND
The Americans had to come from behind a 2-0 deficit to take it, blasting in four goals in the last period, three of them in the first four minutes.

Providence, which hasn't won in Rochester since Feb. 26, 1960, took a lead on first period goals by Zello Toppanzini and Ian Anderson.

Alex Faulkner got one back in the first period, but the Americans didn't score again until Gerry Ehman tied it at 1-0 of the third. Les Kozak got the winner, and Wally Boyer and Faulkner, getting his second of the night, added insurance markers.

In addition to the Providence-Cleveland game, other matches tonight are Rochester at Pittsburgh and Hershey at Springfield.

Mississippi State Looking For Top Spot In SEC Race

By BOB GREEN

The Associated Press Sports Writer
The Mississippi State Bulldogs, ranked eighth in the country but a likely choice to improve, will be shooting for sole possession of the Southeastern Conference lead in one of the key college basketball games tonight.

Babe McCarthy's Bulldogs, who knocked off second-ranked Kentucky earlier this week, share the No. 1 spot with the Wildcats (each 8-1) and could move ahead with a victory over Florida tonight. Kentucky is idle.

And a victory could pave the way for a higher, perhaps much higher, national standing, particularly since four of the top 10 already have suffered losses this week.

BEAVERS ARE BEATEN
The latest was Seattle's 74-73 shock of sixth-ranked Oregon State Friday night, ending a 16 game winning strin for the Beavers, now 17-2. Others were Kentucky, and Duke (No. 7) and Duquesne (No. 9) early in the week.

In another major upset Friday night, Southern Cal regained early season form and tripped up UCLA 74-60, the first loss in six Big Five starts for UCLA.

Even if Mississippi State should take the lead in the SEC, and they're heavily favored to do so, the title would still be very much up for grabs—just as it is in most other major conferences.

Among the other still wide open affairs as the season heads into its waning weeks are the Atlantic Coast, Southwest and Skyline, each with three teams still contending, and the Big Eight, Missouri Valley and—at least technically—the Big Ten.

BOTH IN ACTION
In the latter, however, mighty Ohio State has a stranglehold with a 9-0 record and the country's No. 1 rating at 19-0 for the season. Only Wisconsin (7-1) has any kind of a chance—and that mathematical. Both are in action tonight, the brilliant Buckeyes against Michigan State and Wisconsin against Michigan.

Probably the tightest race is in the Southwest, where Texas Tech, Texas A&M and Southern Methodist are all tied for the top with 6-3 records. It may be less complex after tonight's action. Tech plays Arkansas, the Aggies try TCU, and the Mustangs test Rice, all in league games.

The same could happen in the ACC. North Carolina State stayed alive with a 76-75 squeak past South Carolina Friday night and takes its 9-3 record against Clemson tonight. Wake Forest (9-2) goes against Maryland, and Duke (9-3) plays non-conference Navy.

WARMUP TILTS
A key game in the Skyline tonight matches Colorado State (9-1) and Utah State (8-1). Each warmed up for it Friday night, Colorado State taking Brigham Young 73-65 and the Uthas rolled over Wyoming 78-65. Utah (8-1), idle Friday night, tries to keep pace against Denver.

Cincinnati, the third ranked team in the country, racked up its 21st victory of the season with a 59-47 triumph over Houston but still trails Bradley (No. 5) in the Missouri Valley.

Another nationally-ranked team, Kansas State (No. 4), also is trying to catch up in its league, the Big Eight. Kansas State (7-1) tries Oklahoma, while leading Colorado (8-0) is at Kansas.

Yale took a giant stride toward securing the Ivy League title Friday night, blasting Cornell 77-56. They entered the match tied for the top with 7-1 records, and play each other again next week.

Bermudian Springs assured itself of at least a tie for first place in the Adams Division of Adams-Franklin Basketball League by defeating Fairfield 53-28 Friday evening at East Berlin. A 20-point third period sparked the Eagles to victory after they had been held to a 20 to 14 lead at half time.

Craig Hoke swished 17 points for Bermudian while George Haines led Fairfield with 12.

New Oxford missed its first 34 shots from the field as it dropped an 80-42 decision to Scotland on the latter's floor. At the end of the first period the score was 19-2, both of the Colonials' points coming on foul shots. The Cadets had five players in double figures with Parker and Dick DuBoise each looping 15. Craig Dutra was high man for New Oxford with eight.

Says Fines Made Hornets Better Club

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Larry Regan, Pittsburgh Hornets coach, said Friday that his firing of the hockey team members has apparently brought results, though they are not visible yet in the victory column.

The Hornets' American Hockey League game with Hershey Wednesday night was an example of better team spirit, Regan said. Hershey won 3-1.

Regan, a playing coach, lowered the boom last Sunday after the Hornets lost 4-1 to Cleveland. He levied $100 fines on himself and 13 teammates. He said the penalty was for "poor team performance." The Hornets are in last place in the league's Western Division.

Lafayette Here Tonight For Key MAC Cage Game

Gettysburg College's cagers face another big task here tonight when they clash with Lafayette in an important Middle Atlantic Conference game and the game is expected to draw a capacity crowd. The Bullet freshmen will oppose York Junior College in the preliminary at 6:45.

The Leopards, 15-4 overall and 6-1 in MAC competition, are currently tied with Temple and St. Joseph's for first place in the University Division. The Leopards, 14-5, and 7-2 in the circuit, are right at their heels.

Foremost among the Lafayette starters is Harry "Chip" Lund, 6-5 Senior from Camp Hill. Lund is the MAC's leading rebounder and is fourth in the nation in the same category.

Coach George Davidson has three other lettermen who will start against the Leopards, Gene Denahan, 5-10 Junior; Dan George, 5-10 Senior, and Bob Kauffman, 5-11 Senior. Either Mike McHale, 6-4 Junior, or Gale Schwik, 6-3 Senior will round the team.

Tonight's game is a must if the Leopards are to retain their title hopes. They still face Delaware at Newark, Del., Monday, and Temple here on March 3 on the league schedule.

Reduce Milk Surplus By Culling Unprofitable Cows Says County Agent Zettle

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

A more critical period is facing our nation's dairymen. Recent reports from Washington indicate total milk consumption last year dropped three billion pounds under the 1960 level. This was the first time since the 1930's that our increase in population did not offset the decline in milk consumption per person.

To make the situation worse, milk production in 1961 reached an all-time high with an increase of nearly two billion pounds over that of 1960.

As a result of these two situations, there were five billion pounds more surplus milk last year than during 1961. If this trend continues, dairymen will be faced with greater declines in milk prices and possible federal control through production quotas.

CULL POOR COWS
What can the dairyman do to improve the milk situation? The most reasonable approach would involve culling the unprofitable cows from the milking herd. Because of their large numbers, these cows are putting a considerable amount of milk on the market without benefiting the dairymen.

There are several thousand of these unprofitable cows living right here in Pennsylvania. A recent analysis of Pennsylvania Dairy Herd Improvement Association records showed that a herd of 23 cows averaging 11,000 pounds of milk will put 113,000 pounds less milk on the market and still return the same income above feed costs as 68 cows averaging 7,000 pounds of milk. In addition, costs other than for feed would be reduced with the smaller number of more efficient cows.

Culling the unprofitable cows would not only eliminate the production of surplus milk but would also increase the efficiency of the overall dairy operation, thereby, resulting in higher net incomes for the dairymen.

Dairymen enrolled in either the DHIA or Owner-Sampler testing programs are in a good position to know which cows in their herd should be culled.

TAILOR-MADE MILK
Penn State agricultural research indicates that someday we may have "tailor-made" milk. That would be milk to suit just about any need, any taste. The university's experiments show that it's possible to change not only the percentage of fat in milk but also the composition of that fat. The researchers are working now to see if they can influence the composition of milk in any particular direction.

If such experiments are successful, cows could produce milk for ice cream or cheese-making, or for specific diets of children and adults. While milk is nature's most perfect food, today it must still be processed for manufacturing and other uses.

CONTROL BACTERIA
The Penn States are experimenting with the control of bacteria in the rumen. This incidentally is the key to the development of "tailor-made" milk. Millions of bacteria are found in the cow's rumen — that's the first of the cow's four stomachs. It's here that bacteria and protozoa change the feed materials eaten by the cow into milk-making nutrients.

The rumen is a versatile fermentation vat. Bacteria here are influenced by the type of feed a cow eats — and when you change food materials, sometimes you favor one bacteria over the other. The change in feed may strengthen certain bacteria and weaken others. This changes the products of fermentation, which in turn changes the materials available for milk production. It's such chemical changes in nutrients as these that influence the composition of the milk.

UNANSWERED QUESTIONS
The Penn State researchers have many questions yet unanswered. . . but it's interesting to know that perhaps someday we may have cows producing milk just specially designed for good sharp cheese, or ice cream, or for those of us who have to watch our weight, or maybe for that "youngster" on a bottle. In any case, it's interesting to know of such possibilities.

Beef consumption remains the brighter side of the beef picture. Per capita consumption has increased by 25 pounds during the last 20-year period. In 1961, each person ate about 86 pounds of beef. With a growing population the demand for beef has been tremendous. Beef producers continue to be optimistic and have been expanding their herds since 1958. During the last two years new production records have been set. Because of the great demand for beef price declines have not been great. During 1961, the price of choice cattle declined about two dollars from the levels of 1960. Prices are expected to decline slightly on choice steers during 1962. The big decline in price will be evident in the low grades of cattle. A large volume of low grade cattle will be marketed, particularly during the last half of the year. Profits may be low during some months of the year because feeder prices were high last fall. Feed costs will be higher and slaughter cattle prices lower, so there will be a cost-price squeeze. Overall it still looks like another good year for the beef industry.

NAB SUSPECT IN SLAYING OF DIPLOMAT

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—A member of the household of the U.S. assistant military attaché, Lt. Col. Hulen D. Stogner, was arrested Friday on suspicion of killing his employer, a U.S. Embassy spokesman said.

The suspect is believed to be the houseboy of Col. Stogner, who was shot in his home Wednesday night in the presence of a friend, Miss Elizabeth Thring, 22, of Washington, D.C.

The spokesman, press attache Robert Behrens, said the suspect is being held by United Nations Nigerian police.

Behrens refused to give further details and said the "proceeding might be prejudiced" if a full statement was made now. He insisted the embassy has no official comment to make on the investigation by Congolese security officials, assisted by the United Nations.

IDLE WEDNESDAY
Stogner employed a Congolese man as cook and housekeeper. The man reported to work every day, but lived in his own home in the African quarter of Leopoldville. He was normally not on duty at night, and embassy officials said he was not working on Wednesday evening.

Similarly, a night watchman Stogner employed was not on duty. Officials explained Stogner had apparently sent the watchman home, saying he would be remaining in all evening himself.

Congolese police investigators earlier in the day had questioned Miss Thring, who was first identified as an embassy secretary.

Stogner, 39, of El Paso, Tex., was shot from outside the window of his suburban Leopoldville house. It was Miss Thring who raised the alarm.

His wife and six children are in El Paso.

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — Delegates to two conventions were appointed and committee reports presented at a meeting of the Fire Company Monday evening in the fire hall.

Delegates who will attend the Carroll County Firemen's convention at Manchester May 19 are: Chairman Kenneth Houck, Meredith Gross, Thurston Putnam, John Perry, Donald Clingan; alternates, David Smeak, Norville Welty, Stanley King, Robert Boone and Harry Dougherty Jr.

Delegates appointed to the state convention in Hagerstown June 27, 28 and 29 are: Thurston Putnam, chairman, David Smeak, Donald Clingan, John Perry and Wilbur F. Miller Jr. Alternates are Birnie Staley, Meredith Gross, Stanley King, Harry Dougherty Jr., and Charles Lookingbill.

A meeting of the six ambulance companies in the county will be held at Westminster March 8 to discuss the possibility of forming an ambulance association.

It was announced that the fire police unit now consists of eight members.

Thirteen ambulance calls were reported made during January and three fire calls.

Bills totaling $272.84 were approved for payment. Receipts were $42.

It was announced that all members of the company and auxiliary who wish to get 1962 automobile licenses through the company may take their applications to the fire hall any evening from February 26 through March 2.

The first phase of the Public Opinion Survey being conducted by the Taneytown Jaycees is nearly complete, according to Arthur Garvin, chairman.

International Counsellors night was observed by the Taneytown Lions Club at a meeting Tuesday evening at Taney Inn. One hundred nine Lions, wives and guests were present.

Instrumental selections were rendered by Nancy Wargny, Judy Kiser, Audrey Wilhide and Darrell Stoner, all students at the local high school.

President John T. Hottinger introduced International Counsellors Harry B. Dougherty and Lewis Baer, who introduced Maj. George E. Davison of the Maryland State Police who spoke on "Why Communism Will Fail—Stand Up and Be Counted." He said that communism is only 80 years old and atheistic, while Christianity is over 1,900 years old. He challenged the members to follow their code of ethics and oppose communism.

Delmont Koons Sr. was enrolled into the club by Robert G. Lyles, of Hagerstown.

Other counsellors attending were Richard Simmons of Myersville; Murray Ryan, Baltimore; Carl Thomas, John W. Morgan, both of Frederick; Russell Marsh, Union Bridge; Lawrence Dorsey, Woodsboro; Dougherty and Lyles. Visitors included Deputy District Gov. Fern L. Smith and Zone Chairman Carroll Fritz.

GOP Political Turmoil Stirs Up New Feuds

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Arthur T. McGonigle, unsuccessful Republican gubernatorial candidate in the 1958 general election, has refused to support Sen. Hugh Scott for the GOP gubernatorial nomination this year.

Scott, who was McGonigle's running mate in defeating former Gov. George M. Leader for the Senate, announced in Philadelphia Thursday he would be a candidate for the nomination.

McGonigle, now chairman of the board of Bachman Bakeries Corp. near Reading Thursday night accused Scott of what he termed continuing a "mad and silly drive for power."

OPPOSES SCOTT

In a telegram to Dr. Robert L. Johnson, Republican national Committeeman and chairman of the Republican Alliance of Philadelphia, McGonigle rejected a request by Johnson that he support Scott.

Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom said he had no comment.

Meanwhile, Rep. William W. Scranton, who on Tuesday had reluctantly offered to run for governor if "both sides could settle their differences by agreeing on me as a candidate," was asked for comment on Scott's announcement.

Scranton said he still sticks by his statement of Tuesday. He had no further comment.

VAN ZANDT SILENT

In Washington, Rep. James E. Van Zandt, who is seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination for the U.S. Senate as Woodside's running mate, declined comment on the Scott announcement which ridiculed the harmony label of Woodside and Van Zandt.

SACRIFICING SALARY

NEW YORK (AP) — Maureen Bailey, a bit player and understudy in "The Sound of Music," has taken an off-Broadway assignment instead even though it means a weekly pay cut from $121 to $45.

"It's a much role," says the 22-year-old actress. "I get to sing a half-dozen songs and the part is more than one dimensional." Miss Bailey's new venture is in "All Kinds of Giants."

Vitamin Pill No Substitute For Good Food

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

A well-balanced diet can supply the vitamins and minerals that most persons need for good health, but vitamin pills can't take the place of food. Proteins, minerals and energy foods are just as essential as vitamins.

Nutrients in food work together for the best use of each one. Only when nutrients are present in adequate amounts can the body make the best use of them. Taking vitamin pills without the advice of a physician could throw these nutrients out of balance.

CAN BE WASTEFUL

Unwise use of vitamins can be wasteful and in some cases harmful. The body passes off excess amounts of the water-soluble B vitamins and vitamin C as waste, but stores the fat-soluble vitamins A and D. Overdoses of fat-soluble vitamins can cause serious trouble.

The most important nutrient is the one that's lacking in a person's diet. Nutrients most often deficient are those in milk, leafy green and yellow vegetables, and citrus fruits. Eating recommended amounts of these everyday foods will aid in building an adequate diet.

PRICE CONFUSION

The government's monthly consumer price index is often referred to as the cost-of-living report. Except for economists and statisticians, few people seem to understand price index. When the index figures are higher than the previous month, consumers are likely to say "our cost-of-living is higher." Much of this misunderstanding about the style in which people live arises from a confusion of prices and levels of living.

The consumer price index records very little of the change in the level of living. It merely records the changes in prices of goods and services that city employees in the low and middle income brackets buy to maintain their levels of living.

$134,076 Is Donated To Refurbish The White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House says $134,076.25 in cash has been donated to help with the refurbishing of the executive mansion sponsored by Mrs. John F. Kennedy, but it declines to say who gave how much.

The over-all figure was disclosed Thursday by press secretary Pierre Salinger in connection with published reports about donations related to Wednesday night's television showing of a tour personally conducted by the President's wife, Mrs. Kennedy showed and described the progress being made in redoing the White House in line with its historic past.

Columbia Broadcasting System filmed the program with the understanding that it would be made available to the other networks for simultaneous use on a cost-sharing basis.

TELECAST BY 2

The National Broadcasting Co. telecast the program along with CBS but the American Broadcasting Co. declined to go into the expense-sharing arrangement and does not plan to use the material until Sunday evening.

The New York Herald Tribune said Thursday that CBS expects to make a contribution to the fund and advised the other networks that a donation to the White House Fine Arts Committee was expected to be included in the bill for the show.

Salinger said in regard to that story that there is no quid pro quo—something in return—and never will be in connection with White House privileges. He said there has been no donation from a network and none has been suggested.

CBS said it was considering a donation but had not suggested that the other networks follow suit. The network added that there had been no arrangement with the White House for donations.

NBC said it had heard nothing about a donation being required for the showing.

James C. Hagerty, ABC vice president for news, was quoted by the Herald Tribune as saying such a donation would be against ABC policy. Reached in Omaha, Neb., where he had a speaking date, Hagerty said further that he was less concerned about quid pro quo than about the propriety of a TV network making a donation to a government or a government agency.

CANTON, Mass. (AP) — An engineer was killed and 22 passengers were injured Thursday night in the rear-end collision of two New Haven Railroad commuter trains.

Dead on arrival at Norwood Hospital was John E. Heffernan, 52, of Providence, R.I., engineer of a two-car self-propelled commuter train that crashed into the rear of a stalled train about one mile west of Route 128 station south of Boston.

ROME (AP) — Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński, Roman Catholic primate of Poland, arrived in Rome from Warsaw Friday for his first visit outside Poland since 1958.

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. industrial production declined slightly last month from the record level of December.

Figures issued Thursday by the government indicated that the business recovery hesitated in January.

Output of the nation's mines, mills and utilities dropped slightly. So did other key indicators, such as personal income, retail sales, nonfarm employment and the working hours of factory employees.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission has touched off another underground blast at its Nevada test site.

Thursday's test was the 14th announced in the current series. The AEC said it was a low yield test. That means a blast with an explosive power of less than 20,000 tons of TNT.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury is giving holders of $18.4-billion of government bonds a chance to collect higher interest by exchanging them for new bonds to mature between 1971 and 1998.

Temperatures Nose-Dived During Production Of "Winter Carnival"

"It was a labor of love and frozen fingers and toes."

Thus, the now thawed-out and lovely star soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, Roberta Peters, summed up the January week of production high up in Idaho's Sawtooth Mountain range for ABC-TV's "Winter Carnival at Sun Valley" — the "Westinghouse Presents" special to be seen Friday, February 23 (10-11 p.m., EST).

The "invasion" of Sun Valley one of America's and the world's

From their various snow-laden training grounds came 14 of the world's top professional skiers to compete in a giant slalom for a purse of 3,500 silver dollars.

Considering the number of persons involved and the logistics of this "operation deep-freeze" as it came to be known, it is obvious that it was some time in the planning. But even before the planning came the idea.

The idea was hatched by producer Marlo Lewis who contend-decided to go to Sun Valley we knew were we presenting something different.

SKI EXHIBITION

"That old Hollywood production slogan, 'a rock is a rock, a tree is a tree: shoot it in Griffith Park!' — that's not my production dish of tea. We couldn't possibly have gotten the same production values doing our show in Central Park, for example. We did a scene with Gordon MacRae on top of Mt. Baldy, 9,200 ft. up, from Gordon and Sheila MacRae examine a pair of skis before trying the slopes at Sun Valley. The singers star with Louis Armstrong, Roberta Peters and Jack Carter in "Winter Carnival at Sun Valley," a sports and variety show which will be seen on the "Westinghouse Presents" series of "specials" next Friday evening, 10-11 o'clock over the ABC-TV network. A score of the world's finest skaters, ski jumpers and slalom racers will perform their specialties on the telecast.

great ski resorts, was accomplished by a pincer movement from the east and west coasts during a week of record low temperatures throughout most of the country. From New York, led by producer Marlo Lewis, came a troupe of 35 — stars Roberta Peters, Louis Armstrong and his band, comedian Jack Carter, ice-skating champion Dick Button, Olympic ski medalist Penny Pitou, the famed ice-skating adagio team of Harrison and Kossi, director Grey Lockwood and various production and technical crew members.

GUEST STARS

From Los Angeles came the show's special guest stars Gordon and Sheila MacRae and 25 more cameramen, soundmen, technicians — and their equipment.

EXCURSION IN DEPTH

But this was only part of his bill of particulars. "Television," he said, "must get out of its antiquated sets and take an excursion in depth to a new kind of show business. It's all well and good for some shows to be presented from a nightclub in New York or a famous hotel in Las Vegas. But what do you see? A backdrop curtain that's like another nightclub or hotel any place else. When we

We did another production number with Roberta Peters and Louis Armstrong on the porch steps and grounds of Trail Creek Cabin. And on the slopes of Ruud Mountain we had a ski jump exhibition by Art Togle and Art Devlin, and a giant slalom race with some of the world's greatest skiers competing. Incidentally, this latter marks the first time a major sport event has been incorporated into a television entertainment variety show. Actually, Sun Valley is the top-billed star of our show, in which and around which the human stars worked. And this show simply couldn't be done anywhere else."

TV Briefs

"The Clear Horizon," daytime series, returns to the air on Monday, February 26, CBS-TV in a new time spot, 11:30-11:55 a.m. EST, Monday through Friday. The show will have the same cast and crew that were featured in the series until its demise last March. The series is built around the up-to-the-minute space-research activities at Cape Canaveral.

Tony Dow, young star of "Leave It To Beaver," has joined the Los Angeles Athletic Club volleyball team as an alternate squad member. The LAAC team was recently formed to participate in AAU competition.

Early morning motorists on Sunset Blvd. in Hollywood were probably startled when, as they passed the Moulin Rouge at 7:30 one morning recently, they spotted a large crowd of men and women in evening clothes entering the supper club from the street, obviously prepared for a "night" of merrymaking.

Actually, the mob was a busload of stars, featured players and extras who had just arrived for the filming of a scene for "Viva Vegas," an upcoming ABC-TV "Target: The Corruptors" episode. The Moulin Rouge was being used to "double" for a Las Vegas nightery.

Cara Williams of "Pete and Gladys" figures she worked an average of 10 weeks a year before she got her co-starring role in the TV comedy series. "The best tranquilizer in the world is steady work . . . and a steady pay check," says Cara.

Harry Morgan, co-star of "Pete and Gladys," is a solid sort of a guy who's been happily married for 22 years and who has four sons. When asked for his formula for a happy marriage, Harry, tongue askew, obliges:

"Live a double life like I do. Get yourself a dizzy TV wife like Gladys. Then your real wife, even if she resembles Tugboat Annie, will look good."

tween ten-above and ten-below-zero. Cameras froze, the zoomar lens froze, microphones froze. And the freezing crew members wrapped their mittens and mufflers around the equipment, the recording machines kept rolling, and the show went on . . .

Warning: don't be surprised if frost settles on your TV screen the night of February 23 when Louis Armstrong, on the edge of the Sun Valley skating rink, chants "Up a Lazy River" accompanied by a couple of off-beat blowings on his ungloved, frigid fingers, and punctuates the chorus with a heartfelt ad-lib Armstrongian growl . . . "Oh, dat frozen river . . ."

One of Hollywood's most eligible bachelors, Peter Brown of "Lawman" may be closer to matrimony than he thinks. He's been steady-dating pretty Joan Freeman of TV's "Bus Stop."

Barry Sullivan's "Tall Man" western on NBC-TV Saturday nights has been renewed for another cycle carrying it right through this new season.

Hanna-Barbera, producers of both "The Flintstones" and "Huckleberry Hound," have a new magazine, "Huckleberry Hound Weekly," which was launched in England and has already spread to a dozen countries in seven languages.

Blazing to stardom is Leslie Uggams, young singer seen on Mitch Miller's "Sing Along" programs. Movie producer Vincent Minelli saw one of the shows and immediately tapped Leslie for his next movie, "In Another Town" which will star Edward G. Robinson, Kirk Douglas and Claire Trevor. Leslie, cast as a torch singer, will sing "Don't Blame Me" in both English and Italian. Her coach on the Italian lyrics was Stan Carlson, one of Mitch's singers, who has had long experience in doing Italian Operas across the country.

Old-timer Andy Clyde, who's been showing up in westerns, joins Edgar Buchanan and Arthur Hunnicutt in the "Lum 'N' Abner" pilot being made for a projected series. Andy will advance his age to 90 in this one.

David Brinkley has no ghosts preparing his news material for the Huntley-Brinkley Report on NBC-TV Monday through Friday nights. Dave does all his own writing. Often he ad-libs just from notes but his main objective in presenting any story consists of three words, "Simplicity and clarity."

Sammy Davis Jr. is guest star as Tip Corey, a fast gun who challenges the badge of authority on "The Rifleman" on Monday, February 18, 8:30-9 p.m., ABC-TV. In "Two Ounces of Tin," a buckskin-clad gunman rides into North Fork seeking to avenge the death of his father, who had been killed there at the hands of a lawless mob, many years before.

Shelley Fabares of "The Donna Reed Show" has a new hobby — Swedish weaving. She made several towels to use as Christmas gifts, and enjoyed the work so much she now is doing it regularly.

Roberta Salter, associate producer of "Yours for a Song" and wife of its producer Harry Salter, is the daughter of Aimee Semple McPherson, famed evangelist of the 20's and 30's.

Kathy Nolan of "The Real McCoys" says that playing Kate in the series for five years has given her a new standard of personal values.

"Every time I find myself about to make an extravagant purchase," says Kathy, "I hear Kate McCoy whisper in my ear, 'Tain't fitting to throw money away!'"

Tom Poston of "To Tell The Truth" defines a reckless driver as one who passes you on the highway in spite of all you can do!

Peggie Castle of "Lawman" defines a model marriage as one in which the husband is honest and tells the truth and the wife is tactful and believes him!

Still another status symbol reflects the power of television: a woman's hairdo. For the fifth consecutive year, the Ten Best Coiffured Women have been chosen by a group of 20,000 hairstylists, the Helene Curtis Guild of Professional Beauticians. The list boasts not one, not two, but four television personalities.

Among the world's most honored heads are Dinah Shore, Cara Williams, Eva Gabor and Nancy Hanschman. The TV stars are in impressive company, for the best-dressed list includes Mrs. John F. Kennedy, Princess Margaret, socialite Mrs. William McCormick Blair Jr., fashion designer Anne Klein, dancer Cyd Charisse and actress Sophia Loren.

Alan Reed, the voice of Fred Flintstone, says the number of blasts that come from auto horns in a traffic snarl is equal to the sum of the squares at the wheel!

Sing Along's Mitch Miller suggests that you never miss an opportunity to make others happy—even if you have to let them alone to do it!

An actor on Barry Sullivan's "Tall Man" wanted to buy some perfume for his date. The saleslady showed him a bottle called "Perhaps" at $35 an ounce. "For $35 an ounce," he protested, "I don't want 'Perhaps.' I want 'For Sure.'"

Gloria Lambert, singer on "Sing Along With Mitch" has two movie
